

Pauline Tait

Novelist & Children's Author

With 4 and 5 Star Reviews, this beautifully illustrated picture book has been praised for promoting kindness, thoughtfulness, and being true to yourself.

Leona fills her days dancing, listening to music, and decorating her precious kettle.

But, on a wild and stormy evening, she is blissfully unaware of the dangers outside as the wind and rain lash against her kettle. Is this just a winter storm or are the fairies actually in grave danger? Leona and her friends will soon find out...

"Everything is perfect, from the art to the plot to the words. One of the best children's books I've ever seen." Reader review

"Tait has created a wonderful wee story for little ones, that is fun to read aloud, and with a really magical sense of fun in the illustrations" Reader review

My years of experience in working with and assessing children from Primaries one to seven, who needed extra-curricular support, then creating and delivering individual learning plans to meet their specific needs, has only fuelled my passion to write.

Having influenced both the writing and the production processes of my picture books, the covers are tactile, while care is given to the internal layouts and font to ensure they engage and inspire.

www.paulinetait.com

Facebook: @ptauthor

Instagram: @tait_pauline_author

Twitter: @PTait_author

07789 743 955

SilverWood Books

RRP: £9.99

Paperback & Ebook

Available in all good book shops